Mansfield Timberview High School

Academic Mace

Timberview High School's Academic Mace is on display today in our ceremony. An academic mace is a symbol of the powerful tradition of excellence in learning that has inspired academic institutions for centuries. First carried in academic procession in the fourteenth century, the academic mace represents the transformation that education makes possible by reshaping a brutal instrument of war into a symbol of the power in a centuries old tradition that has changed and continues to change the world.

Timberview was the new high school in the Mansfield Independent School District, in 2004, just as the Mansfield public schools were new in 1909 and the Boston Latin School was new in 1635, when it became the first public secondary school in the United States. By carrying the Academic Mace, Timberview honors the history of public-school education in the United States and joins that tradition in the ongoing challenge of renewal, expansion, growth and change.

Timberview's unique Academic Mace is topped by the stylized head of a wolf with its streaming mane suggesting a forward surging motion, and its placement atop the mace reminiscent of the flame of a torch. The wolf's head rises above a thick letter 'T' that is engraved "Mansfield Timberview High School, Est. 2004". The T rests atop an octagonal block that identifies the eight core values chosen by Timberview to be the foundation of the school's value-inspired education: Learning, High Expectations, Diversity, Respect, Teamwork, Relationships, Citizenship, Integrity. These symbols are attached to the thick shaft by which the mace is carried and through which it is connected to its ancient traditions. The Academic Mace is constructed of native oak, a symbol of strength and growth, and sits atop an acorn-like base that reminds us that the smallest steps have the power to produce great strides. At the top of the shaft are attached ribbons–maroon, silver, and black– each representing a graduating class and preserving basic information about the class.

The ribbon for the Class of 2023 includes the following information:

Class of 2023 | 475 Graduates | May 26,2023

Valedictorian: Joydeb Nath | Salutatorian: Tien Diem Nguyen

Principal- Derrell Douglas
Teacher of the Year- Lara Alvarenga- English

The Timberview Academic Mace was created and donated by Jim Benton (Timberview Language Arts Teacher 2004-2010) and Mark Zug (Artist in wood, Wichita Fall, Texas) in the spring of 2010.
