

Technology Applications

Grade: 4th
Six Weeks: 6th 6 Weeks (based on 50-60 minute lesson)
Unit: Graphic Organizers & Multimedia
Lesson	TEKS	Examples/Specifics	Guiding Questions
Week 1	Use appropriate technology terminology (1A) Save files and use menu commands (1B) Use software programs with audio, video, and graphics to enhance learning experiences (7A)	Such as: Student learns how to use various visual mapping tools to create, replace, erase, move and link objects and text. Such as: resize, undo, web, labels, create tool, objects, sizing points, backspace, delete key	What can we use graphic organizers for?

Technology Applications

Grade: 4th
Six Weeks: 6th 6 Weeks (based on 50-60 minute lesson)
Unit: Graphic Organizers & Multimedia
Lesson	TEKS	Examples/Specifics	Guiding Questions
Week 2	(Continued) Use multimedia to express and ideas and solve problems (7B) Use software features such as online help to evaluate work progress (9A) Use software features such as slide show preview to evaluate final product (9B) Use font attributes, color, white space and graphics for a defined audience (10A)	Such as: Using presentation software to tell stories and present information & ideas; identify story's sequence, recognize beginning, middle and end of story or presentation; view slides and slide show; insert & edit text, insert slides, use white space effectively, change background, preview; combine types of data (text, audio, graphics) Such as: audience, purpose, slide, organize, sequence, events, conclusion, presentation software, view, insert, white space, preview	How do we tell a story or present information using presentation software? What does presentation software enable us to combine to tell a story or present information? How can you format your slide show for different audiences?

Technology Applications

Grade: 4th
Six Weeks: 6th 6 Weeks (based on 50-60 minute lesson)
Unit: Graphic Organizers & Multimedia
Lesson	TEKS	Examples/Specifics	Guiding Questions
Week 3	Continued) Use font attributes, color, white space and graphics for communication including multimedia display (10B) Publish information to multimedia screen display (11A) Use presentation software to communicate with specific audiences (11B)	Such as: add simple draw objects, including shapes, lines and arrows; add effective audio, duplicate a slide, choose appropriate color palette for slide show; modify text and object color; use preview; combine data types such as text, audio and graphics; add visual and audio effects; add animation effects Such as: color palette, effects, emphasis, transitions, slide sorter view	How can we express our voice in slideshow presentations? What is a color palette? How can it be used in a presentation? How can we emphasize or draw attention to ideas?

Technology Applications

Grade: 4th
Six Weeks: 6th 6 Weeks (based on 50-60 minute lesson)
Unit: Graphic Organizers & Multimedia
Lesson	TEKS	Examples/Specifics	Guiding Questions
Week 4	Continued) Save work in electronic portfolio (12A) Evaluate product for relevance to the task. (12B) Create technology evaluation tool (12C)	See Above	How can we prepare to present a slideshow?
Week 5	See Above	See Above	What is an important idea to remember when creating slideshow presentations? What should you remember when speaking in front of an audience?
Week 6	All	All	All