MISD Children's Center Waiting List Guidelines:

The age-appropriate list is based the age of the child by September 1st and date the form is received. Each individual child in a family must be put on the age-appropriate list. Parents must call or e-mail the Center to update addresses and telephone numbers. If this information is not updated and the center is unable to contact your family, we will fill the opening with the next name on the list. The MISD Children's Center reserves the right to balance groups according to the sex of the child, chronological age, and developmental levels. This application does not obligate the parent to enroll this child, nor does it obligate the Children's Center to accept the child.
