Course Number: 2033
Placement: 11
Credits: 1 NCAA approved
Prerequisite: English I or Advanced English II
The AP English Language and Composition course (AP English III) aligns to an introductory college-level rhetoric and writing curriculum, which requires students to develop evidence-based analytic and argumentative essays that proceed through several stages or drafts. Students evaluate, synthesize, and cite research to support their arguments. Throughout the course, students develop a personal style by making appropriate grammatical choices. Additionally, students read and analyze the rhetorical elements and their effects in non-fiction/fiction texts from many disciplines and historical periods. The course equips the student with the communication and thinking skills essential for success in social, academic (including SAT and ACT), and business situations. In addition, this rigorous college-preparatory course prepares the student for the Advanced Placement testing program.

ADVANCED PLACEMENT ENGLISH IV
Course Number: 2043
Placement: 12
Credits: 1
Prerequisite: English III or AP English III
The AP English Literature course (AP English IV) aligns to an introductory college-level literary analysis course. The course engages students in the close reading and critical analysis of literature to deepen their understanding of the ways writers use language to provide both meaning and pleasure. As they read, students consider a work's structure, style, and themes, as well as its use of figurative language, imagery, symbolism, and tone. Writing assignments include expository, analytical, and argumentative essays that require students to analyze and interpret literary works. The accelerated curriculum equips the student with the communication and thinking skills essential for success in social, academic (including SAT and ACT) and business situations and prepares students for Advanced Placement testing. NCAA approved
